FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHASE COFFMAN OF MISSOURI NAMED JOHN MACKEY TIGHT END OF THE WEEK

Manhasset, N.Y. (October 17, 2007) – Chase Coffman of Missouri was named John Mackey Tight End of the Week by the Nassau County Sports Commission. The Big 12 junior recorded 10 receptions for 102 yards as 15th ranked Missouri was edged by 4th ranked Oklahoma 41-31. This is the second straight week that a Missouri Tight End has been recognized with this honor.

The John Mackey Tight End of the Week is an honor distinct and different from the annual John Mackey Award. This weekly honor was started in 2004 to draw attention to individual play by Tight Ends during the active season. The Tight End of the Week acknowledgment does not have a direct bearing on the final John Mackey Award selection process.

The Nassau County Sports Commission, a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization created to enhance quality of life of Nassau County residents through sports, is responsible for the administration of the John Mackey Award and the John Mackey Award Selection Committee. The 2007 recipient of “The Mackey” will be announced in early December and presented at the Nassau County Sports Commission Annual Awards Dinner on April 28, 2008.
